

Here's the most current list of groups that are either forming or presently open to adding new people. For each you'll find the logistics, a group description, and the contact information for the leader/s, enabling you to connect with them personally to see if their group would be a good fit for you. Please contact Shane Fanning, Director of eGroups, if you need support in any way in this process (970-475-1991 or shanef@cccgreeley.org).

Wright, Dorothy	Weds Weekly (We take summers off)	9:00-11:00am	Women of All Ages 15 th Street Campus Community Room	If you are looking for fellowship, prayer, Biblical study, and a sense of community, then please join us beginning September 13th. Our fall study we will be looking at what it means to be a citizen of the kingdom of Heaven? Matthew's gospel opens with three chapters containing Jesus' longest recorded message – a sermon given to His disciples early in His ministry to articulate what the life of a Christ-follower would look like. It was a message intended to turn upside down every expectation His closest followers might have. Both practical and profound, the sermon asks of us the same questions it posed to its original hearers: How should a disciple relate to sin? To others? To the Law? How does a disciple think, speak, and act? What is the nature of true righteousness? Join us for Jen Wilkin's 9-week study on The Sermon of the Mount. Order your member book through lifeway.com or amazon.	Childcare is available for $2/child/time or up to $5/family for birth through preschool. Scholarships are available if needed.
