The Impact of Generosity

(2 Corinthians 9:8-15)

Alan Kraft, Lead Pastor

Group Interaction & Application

Read aloud together 2 Corinthians 9:8-15.

What words, phrases, concepts, or images from these verses stand out to you as you just read them, or create curiosity for you in some way?

What aspects of Pastor Alan's message gave you fresh insight into this passage, or helped you the most in understanding these verses and what we experience here?

Within this portion of scripture, Pastor Alan highlights four potential impacts of generosity.

First, Our generosity gives us a clearer vision of who God is. (vs. 9:8)

Whether you are more likely to view God as a God of scarcity or a God of abundance, why is either the case?

If you have gained a greater appreciation for God's abundance in your life journey, what has shaped this change?

How fully do you trust that God wants to pour out abundance on us?

Second, Our generosity opens the door for God's provision in our lives. (vs. 8-11)

How fully do you trust that God will provide for your needs?

What is the difference between providing for our needs vs. our wants?

How do you reconcile this promise of provision when you or others are experiencing financial hardship?

Where do you need God's provision today?

Third, Our generosity opens the door for us to engage in further generosity. (vs. 10-11)

When has taking an initial generous step propelled you to live even more generously?

Who has inspired you by the generous life they lead?

When has someone else's generosity toward you inspired you to pay that generosity forward?

Fourth, Our generosity will result in others giving praise and thanks to God. (vs. 11-14)

When has someone else's generosity inspired you to offer a heart of praise to God?

When have you seen others moved to a spirit of thanksgiving out of them being on the receiving end of a generous act?

Where are you feeling called to move forward in generosity today?

What is stirring in your heart as you ponder the opportunities in front of you?

Coming out of Impact Weekend and our church's 125th birthday, what did you hear that inspired you?

How, if at all, might you contribute in a greater way to the work that is taking place at Christ Community?

Conclude by praying for one another in taking practical next steps in applying this weekend's message and group discussion, after which pray for group needs and concerns.
